

New Members

-On-Trial

We welcomed four new members-on-trial (MOTs) into the Trinity Annual Conference in August 2019; Pastors Emanuel, Jeremy, Li Ping and Reginald have been appointed to Ang Mo Kio MC, Aldersgate MC, Christ MC, and Christalite MC respectively.

EMANUEL GOH

*E*manuel Goh grew up in Paya Lebar Methodist Church and has been posted to Ang Mo Kio Methodist Church as an assistant pastor from 1 August 2019. He enjoys playing sports. He is happy that the staff at Ang Mo Kio Methodist Church play soccer every Wednesday, so if you are free do join us for a short game in the afternoon. He also enjoys watching movies with his wife, Belicia Tan. He thanks God that Belicia also enjoys action movies such as superhero movies, Fast and Furious and Transformers.

JEREMY YAP

*J*eremy is happily married to Lydia, who is working as a part time accountant and full time home maker. They have with three active children: Asher (7 years old), Lauren (3 years old) and Kristen (1 year old).

Before answering the Lord's call to pastoral ministry, Jeremy worked as a corporate lawyer. For the past three years, Jeremy has been preparing for full time ministry by pursuing his Masters of Divinity in Trinity Theological College.

Jeremy loves cooking, basketball and has a new found penchant for gardening even though he does not have very green fingers. But above all this, Jeremy's most enjoyable moments are spent spending a quiet day at home with his family.

Pastors Reginald, Jeremy, Emanuel, and Li Ping

JREGINALD

Reginald had the privilege of serving God full time for over 15 years with TRAC Youth Ministries (TRUTHMIN), before responding to the call to enter into pastoral ministry after his studies at Trinity Theological College. He is married to Evelyn and have 3 lovely daughters, Claire, Cate and Chrys. He is known for his down-to-earth humour and approachable personality and is deeply passionate about worship, youth work and mentoring. Moments are spent spending a quiet day at home with his family.

TAY LI PING

Li Ping enters the pastoral ministry having served in two other ministries: the Ministry of Defence as an Industrial-Organisational Psychologist from 2000-2008, and the "Ministry of Home Affairs" as a part-time stay-at-home mother from 2008 until her graduation from Trinity Theological College this year. Household is a rowdy party of seven: husband Joseph; three biological sons Joshua (17), Daniel (12), Gabriel (8); two foster sons (11 and 7). She also served as a lay leader in various positions in her home church, Aldersgate Methodist Church. She loves reading fiction, dancing and watching science-fiction and fantasy films and TV series.

